St. Peter's Anglican Church Donations

We would like to thank the women of St. Peters Anglican Church for their beautiful donations.

We received another donation of The Fair Isle sweaters are incredibly beautiful - such fine work and beautiful colour combinations; they have also sent us some scarves, hats, and mitts, as well as some wool. They are so supportive of us and we greatly appreciate it as always.

Thank you for the continuing support throughout the year.

The little things that matter.

Last month we had a young woman contact Angel Hugs looking for donations. Caryl put together a parcel for a 6-month old boy, which included outfit, with hat and booties, a toy bear and a blanket. It was then delivered to the young mom. She was absolutely delighted and grateful. They are fairly new to Canada and they appreciate any help. Debbie gave the mom information on

Best Start but unfortunately she didn't qualify for the program. Helping 1 person can make such a difference, so thank you ladies for being so committed to our group and helping those in need.

Thoughts & Inspirations

This poem represents what volunteering can do!

THE DIFFERENCE

A word is spoken and it inspires others, who inspires others.

A helping hand is offered to one who helps another, who helps yet another.

A life is lived well, that touches other lives that never stops touching even more lives.

The difference in a moment can last for all time.
